

Bacchus Marsh

A day-trippers delight

Craving a countryside adventure without the long drive? Bacchus Marsh is your perfect day-trip destination just 45 minutes from Melbourne's CBD and bursting with charm, flavour, and natural beauty.

A Taste of Bacchus Marsh

Wander along the iconic Avenue of Honour, where roadside stalls overflow with freshly picked produce, homemade jams, vibrant juices, and delicious preserves, all grown and crafted locally. In season, you can even roll up your sleeves and pick your own strawberries, apples, and cherries straight from the farm!

Explore the great outdoors

Families and nature lovers will adore the tranquil Lerderderg River, winding its way through town, and the lush parks dotted with BBQ facilities and amenities. For the more adventurous, Bacchus Marsh is the gateway to some of Victoria's most stunning natural escapes including Lerderderg State Park, Wombat State Forest, and the dramatic Werribee Gorge.

Discover the heart of town

Stroll down the bustling Main Street, where heritage-listed buildings meet boutique shops and a diverse range of eateries. Whether you're after a cosy café, a hearty pub meal, or something gourmet, there's something to satisfy every craving.

For more tourism information use the QR code to visit:
<https://www.moorabool.vic.gov.au/Services-and-support/For-visitors>

