

Fruit picking

Fresh, fun, and straight from the farm!

What could be better than biting into perfectly sweet, freshly picked fruit? Picking it yourself, of course! Bacchus Marsh is renowned for its fresh produce and is quickly becoming Victoria's top destination for pick-your-own fruit experiences. Whether you're a foodie, a family, or just looking for a wholesome day out, this is the place to be.

🍒 Seasonal fruit picking guide

- Strawberries - November to April
- Cherries - November to December
- Apples - January to May Peaches and
- Nectarines - December to February
- Persimmons - April to June
- Blueberries - December- March

🍓 Pick your own and farm fresh retailers

Strawberries, cherries, apples, peaches, and nectarines.

- Naturipe Fruits, 638 Bacchus Marsh Road, Bacchus Marsh

Cherries, berries, nectarines, plums, apricots, peaches, and apples.

- Payne's Orchards, 372 Bacchus Marsh Road, Bacchus Marsh

Blueberries

- Thistleberry Farm Scotsburn 35 Williams Ln, Scotsburn VIC

Farm fresh fruit and vegetable grocer and gourmet retailer

- Fruits of Life, 411 Bacchus Marsh Road, Bacchus Marsh
- The Farmgate Shop, 5234 Midland Hwy, Elaine

Fun for all ages!

Whether you're gathering fruit for a picnic or just enjoying the outdoors, fruit picking in Bacchus Marsh is a delightful activity that brings people together.

For more tourism information use the QR code to visit:
<https://www.moorabool.vic.gov.au/Services-and-support/For-visitors>

