

Leigh Creek

Panoramic views and medieval magic

Just an hour from Melbourne, Leigh Creek is a peaceful rural hamlet offering spectacular panoramic views across Western Victoria, from Ballarat and Lake Wendouree to the distant peaks of the Grampians National Park.

Scenic serenity

Surrounded by lush green farmland, Leigh Creek is the perfect place to unwind, take in the views, and enjoy the quiet charm of country Victoria.

Step into the middle ages

Built in the 1970s as a tribute to medieval times, Kryal Castle is one of Australia's most unique tourist attractions, drawing visitors from across the globe.

For more tourism information use the QR code to visit:

<https://www.moorabool.vic.gov.au/Services-and-support/For-visitors>

