

Ballan

Nature, art and adventure

Nestled just 80km west of Melbourne along the Western Freeway, Ballan is a charming highlands village that invites you to slow down, explore, and soak in its natural beauty and heritage.

Nature, parks and scenic escapes

With the Werribee River winding nearby, Caledonian Park to the west, Pykes Reservoir to the east, and the Brisbane Ranges to the south, Ballan is a haven for outdoor lovers. Enjoy peaceful walks, refreshing swims, tranquil picnics, and lush gardens.

 Fishing fans will love Bostock Reservoir, a local hotspot for hooking rainbow and brown trout.

A creative community

Ballan is quickly gaining a reputation as a creative hub, attracting artists inspired by its landscapes and peaceful vibe. Browse local galleries, markets, and stores to discover unique handmade treasures and artworks.

Whether you're seeking relaxation, inspiration, or a taste of country hospitality, Ballan invites you to slow down, explore, and enjoy.
